Judgment in a Criminal Case AO 245B (Rev. 09/19) Sheet 3A - Supervised Release

Judgment-Page

DEFENDANT: Minh Quang Pham CASE NUMBER: S2 12 cr 423

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time
- After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and 2. when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the 3. court or the probation officer.
- You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer. 4.
- You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from 7. doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
- If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. AO 245B (Rev. 09/19) Judgment in a Criminal Case Sheet 3D — Supervised Release

DEFENDANT: Minh Quang Pham CASE NUMBER: S2 12 cr 423

Judgment—Page 6 of 8

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1- Defendant shall cooperate with the Department of Homeland Security Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services (BCIS), proceedings to determine his status in the United States and abide by its rules, regulations and laws;
- 2- Defendant shall submit his person, and any property, residence, office, vehicle, papers, computers, cell phones, and other devices or media used for electronic communications, data storage, cloud storage or network storage to a search by any United States Probation Officer, and if needed, with the assistance of any law enforcement. The search is to be conducted when there is reasonable suspicion concerning violation of a condition of supervision or unlawful conduct by the person being supervised. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of supervised release. Defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Any search shall be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner;
- 3- Throughout the term of supervised release, defendant shall participate in weekly mental health individual counseling by a licensed therapist. The defendant may be required to contribute to the costs of services rendered (copayment) in an amount to be determined by the probation officer, based on ability to pay or availability of third party payment;
- 4- Defendant shall be supervised in his district of residence;
- 5- Defendant shall report to probation within 48 hours of his release from custody;
- 6- Probation Department is required to notify the Court immediately upon the defendant's release from custody and to schedule a supervised release hearing with the Court within 30 days of the defendant's release from custody;
- 7- The terms of supervised release may not be modified without prior approval of the Court.
